

Help in crisis, hope for life

GAIL'S COLLECTION VOLUNTEER, RICHMOND FOODBANK

The Vineyard Community & Richmond Foodbank are looking for a new Gail's Collection Volunteer to support our foodbank and logistics team in the Richmond area.

There are roughly 13 million people in the UK who live below the poverty line and in the last 12 months, close to 3 million emergency food parcels were distributed by food banks in the Trussell Trust network — the most parcels ever distributed by the network in a year. In the Borough of Richmond, we continue to see high demand for foodbank services.

As a charity, we run crisis and social inclusion services across the Borough, of which our 6 foodbank locations play a massive part. Every day, we help individuals overcome personal crises and reconnect with society.

Help in crisis, hope for life

THE ROLE

We are very fortunate to have a local partnership with the Gail's in Richmond, who donate their surplus bread and pastries for us to use across our services to help those in need. As a Collection Volunteer, you will provide crucial support to our busy foodbank and logistics team. Your duties will include:

- Visiting the Gail's store to collect surplus bread and pastries
- Transporting surplus food stock from Gail's to Vineyard Community Centre in Richmond. You are welcome to transport stock by car, bike or walking (about a 10-15 minute walk), but please note that there is limited parking nearby to Gail's. We will provide a trolley if needed.
- Where needed, putting stock away in its assigned place at Vineyard Community Centre, e.g. Community Give Away, Crisis Drop In, Foodbank, etc.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

- The physical ability to transport stock between Gail's and Vineyard Community Centre, i.e. access to a car or the ability to wheel a trolley half a mile with a trolley of stock
- Organised, with the ability to take the initiative and work independently
- You must be over 18 to volunteer with us, due to our safeguarding policy
- Commitment to Vineyard Community & Richmond Foodbank's ethos and values

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with us! 🌟
